WARSAW, August 6.

THE Marshal of the Crown, and the Palatine of Kalisch, are set out for Dresden, to communicate to the King the Result of the Conferences held at Bialistock. In the mean Time, it is ...in that a large Body of Russian Troops have ...ed into Lithuania, and the General who com...ds them has given his Reasons for so doing in ...ifesto, to the following Purport: "That it is ...ell known by all the World, that in order to ...store the public Tranquility in Poland, the ...ussian Troops resided there from 1703 till ...716; and that their Assistance was earnestly ...licited of the Emperor Peter the First, by the ...ing and the Republic of Poland; that the ...onvention relative thereto was signed in 1716, ...d ratified by the Diet in 1717; that from this ...ime that Convention was constituted a Part of ...e fundamental Laws of the Republic; and ...at it is by Virtue of this Convention, that the ...ussian Troops have now entered Lithuania, in ...der to quell the Spirit of Discord which has ...ng reigned there."

...arii, August 19. The Affair of Canada is still ...ed on with great Eagerness. Volumes of ...moirs and Cases are drawn up for and against ...Accused; and in them we already see enough ...discover clearly how ill the King has been serv... and how much the rage of Money has hurt ...general good of the State. It is said that the ...iament insists on taking Cognizance of M. ...y's Affair. The Nation in general are full of ...gnation, that the Honour of the French Name, ...the Interests of the Crown, should have been ...rificed almost every where, to the Avaricionsness ...few Individuals.

...gue, August 20. The Deputies of the Dutch ...India Company who were sent to London to ...minate the Differences between the two Com...s, returned a few Days ago, and will soon ...e their Report to the States-General. But we ...w already that their Negociation has proved ...itless.

...ockholm, August 9. Don Belestar, charged with ...Affairs of the Court of Spain, has declared to ...Senate, by order of the King his Master, that ...as Reported to him, that, in Consequence of ...late Treaty of Peace concluded between the ...peror of Morocco and the King of Sweden, ...Crown has, by one of the Articles in the said ...aty, engaged to furnish that Barbary Prince ...only with a certain Quantity of Ammunition, ...also with a Ship well Armed, and provided ...h Naval Stores; adding, that, if this Informa... proves true, his Catholic Majesty cannot but ...nt it, and take such Measures as the like Ex...cies require. To which the Senate has given ...n Belestar for Answer, that there was no foun...ion for such a Remonstrance; the Presents, in...ded for the Emperor of Morocco, consisted ...y of Linens, Cloth, &c. This Complaint, how...r groundless, has notwithstanding engaged the ...istry to order Count Creutz, Envoy Extraor...y from this Court to that of Spain, to hasten ...r going out for Madrid.

Ratisbon, August 18. Many Reports prevail here, the Truth of which we will not vouch for: These are, that a large Body of Ottoman Troops is advancing towards the Danube; that a Camp is tracing out in the environs of Bielitz in Silesia; and that the Misunderstanding increases between Russia and Poland.

August 22. For this Week past they have been enlisting Troops for the service of the King of Prussia: This levy, however, is made without any Noise, and they take none but select Persons.

Amsterdam, Aug. 25. Thirty-two Failures in this City are supposed to amount to Sixty Millions of Dutch Florins, upwards of Five Millions Sterling.

LONDON, August 24.

Great Expectations, with regard to Trade, are formed from the Increase of our Possessions on the Continent of North-America. One House in the City, in particular, is preparing to Ship off, with the first opportunity, for Florida and Augustine, Goods to the amount of 20000 l.

August 25. The Forces which the King of Prussia has assembled in Brandenburgh, makes it apprehended, that he may invade Hanover, if the British Council persist in refusing to pay the Remainder of the Subsidy owing to him during the War.

Letters from Hamburgh of the 16th Instant advise, there were at Altena several Prussian, Austrian, and Danish recruiting Officers, who inlisted a great Number of Men, and sent them directly away to their respective Countries.

The Letters which arrived Yesterday from Russia, do not mention any thing about a new Revolution in that Empire; by which it is thought that there was no foundation for such a Report.

In a Letter from Plymouth Garrison, to a Gentleman in Town, dated the 10th Inst. is the following Paragraph; "I have just now received orders to March with two Companies into Cornwall, to quell some Riots committed by the Tinners there."

By a Gentleman lately arrived from the East-Indies, we are informed, that some of our Ships, just before they sailed for England, had taken two Snows, the one French, and the other Dutch, each of which had Officers on board of the respective Countries; and Dispatches were found on board for the Troops of each Country to exercise Hostilities against the English Settlements in that Quarter of the World.

It is said a Plan is laid before a certain great Person, for opening the Theatre in the Haymarket for the ensuing Season; the Profits arising therefrom to be appropriated to the relief of the Widows and Orphans of the Officers, Soldiers and Sailors, who lost their Lives in the service of their Country in the late War.

August 27. By the Holland Mail, which arrived this Afternoon, it is said there is advice that 15 Houses have stopped at Hamburgh, and four at Berlin; which, if true, must greatly Alarm the Gentlemen concerned in Commerce. The Letters were ordered to be delivered this Afternoon.

We hear that Lieutenant-Colonel Scott is appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the Island of Dominico; Lieutenant-Colonel Gore for the Grenadoes; Lieut. Col. Maddison for St. Vincent's; and Major Brown, late Commandant of the Barbadoes Volunteers against Martinico, for Tobago.

There are said to be very great Heart-burnings among the People of Distinction in Ireland, on Account of some Removals and Pensions in the Establishment of that Kingdom.

A Letter from Wilna, dated July 22, says, "We have received an Account that the Russian Troops have positive Orders to enter this grand Duchy the 30th Inst. the Conferences to stop them having proved ineffectual. In the mean Time the great Treasurer, Count Fleming, is raising Men with the greatest Expedition and Success, there being a great Number of Men discharged by the late Peace, who very willingly enter."

Sept. 1. The Attention of the Public was never so fixed to any Object as the present unsettled State of the Ministry. Some pretend to say, that the intended Coalition, or rather the Reconciation of the Whig Party, will not take place, but that the great Men now at the Helm, are determined to wait the Meeting of Parliament. Others are of Opinion, that Matters are now brought to such a Crisis, that nothing but the Authority and Influence of the great Favourites of the People, will be able to restore them to that Situation which every true Lover of his Country would wish.

Letters from Holland advise, that the Court of Vienna's Apprehensions of a Rupture with the Turks increase more and more.

Private Letters from Petersburgh say, that her Czarian Majesty is in a declining State of Health, for which various Causes are alleged.

The 13th Inst. died at Saxe Gotha, Prince Louis Ernest, third Brother to the reigning Duke of Saxe-Gotha, and to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, aged 35 Years, 7 Months, and 15 Days. He was Lieutenant-General in the Service of Cologne and Munster, Colonel of a Regiment of Infantry, and Knight of the Black Eagle of Poland.

Extract of a private Letter from Hanover, Aug. 6.

"We do not at all regret Peace being restored to the Empire, though in some respects we found the Sweets of the War, as the Quantity of Coin circulating in this Electorate was amazingly increased; your Guineas are a handsome Coin; almost every Body here has one, or more of them, to keep, by way of Medal, in their Pockets. The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick was here some Weeks ago; the Waterworks in the Gardens of Herenhausen were played for his Amusement; these Gardens, as well as the Palace, are getting into Order, some say, for his Reception, tho' others, with more Probability, assert, that one of his Majesty's Brothers is to take up his Residence here for some Time, that he may be upon the Spot when he is chosen Bishop of Osnaburg, &c. which Election will, it is currently reported, soon take Place. We begin now to despair of seeing our Monarch on this Side the Water; would he permit one of his royal Brothers to keep a Court, and reside in our Capital, it would make his loyal Subjects happy."

It is the general Opinion, that the Dutch have between 20 and 30 Millions in our Funds; but this is a very great Mistake, and a Partial Overrating the Dutch Influence among us; for they have no more than 10 or 12 Millions, at most, in all our Funds:—They are said to have one third of our Bank-Stock, the whole of which is 10,960,000 l. and orders are come from Amsterdam to sell two Millions here, if our Court should be peremptory in some capital Demands, the Terror of which has occasioned the present large Bankruptcies among those perfidious and avaricious Republicans.

Public Credit begins to revive again at Amsterdam, where it is said, that such of the Merchants as can demonstrate that they are at the Bottom in good Circumstances, will be supported. At Hamburgh a Subscription has been made of three Millions of Marks, which it is hoped will restore the Circulation there, and put an End to the apprehensions of the other.

The State of the Stocks has put many People into a great Consternation, and many false Reports have been raised to serve particular Ends, and to throw an Odium on some of the late Ministry; but it is said from good Authority, there will nothing more appear than that some Gentlemen have sold out large Sums in order to support the Reputation of some foreign Houses.

The French are so intent upon re-establishing their Marine, that they have now some Hundreds of Fishing Boats at Sea, which have all Three Apprentices on board, instead of One.

They write from France (it is said) that M. Pontonnier, who went to Port L'Orient to Try his Machine he has invented to freshen Sea Water, had the greatest Success in his Experiment. In 24 Hours he freshened 1500 Pints [750 English Wine Gallons.] His Machine is very simple and not expensive. With the help of 30 Tons of Rives or other fresh Water, he makes 80 Tons of good Water, by which, independent of every other Advantage, the Freight of 60 Tons is saved. The Experiment is to be tried soon at Sea.

The last Letters received at the Hague, from Berlin, import, that the King of Prussia had given Orders for all his Regiments to be Compleated as fast as possible: And that, in Consequence thereof,

Great Preparations are making at St. James's for the Baptizing the young Prince, which for certain will be next Wednesday: And the Ceremony is to be performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and her Majesty is to be Churched at the Chapel Royal the same Day.

We are informed that a very strict Inquiry will be made in the next Session of Parliament with Regard to a late Discovery that greatly affects the Nation.

We are told that a certain great Nobleman has been absolutely forbid to appear any more at Court.

It is said, that a Misapplication of near Three Millions of Money has lately been found out.

PHILADELPHIA, November 3.

With Captain Budden came Passengers the Honourable JOHN and RICHARD PENN, Esquires; the First appointed Governor of this Province. And on Monday last his Commission was read at the Court-House, in the Presence of a great Number of People.

We have Advice from Ligonier, that a Convoy with Provisions was safe arrived there from Bedford, in their Way to Pittsburgh, where, we hear, they were all well, having then met with no Disturbance from the Indians. Near Bedford five Indians have been lately seen, but we do not learn that they had done any Mischief.

Tuesday last Afternoon and Evening, we had a smart N. E. Storm, with heavy Rain and a very high Tide, and next Morning the Ground was cover'd with Snow.

Thursday last Died in Kent County, after long enduring with the utmost Patience and Resignation, the excruciating Pain of the Stone in the Bladder, the Learned and Reverend Mr. JAMES STERLING, Rector of St. Paul's Parish in that County, whose Death occasion'd the following Letter:

To the Printers of the MARYLAND GAZETTE.

GENTLEMEN,

AFTER mentioning the Death of the Reverend Mr. James Sterling, which I suppose you will in your next Paper, be pleased to insert what follows, and oblige, Gentlemen,

Your very humble Servant,

Nov. 14, 1763. EUPHRANOR.

Dignum laude virum Musa vetat mori. HOR.

THO' it be universally allowed that there never did exist a perfect Character among mere Mortals, yet such are the Prejudices which the Bulk of Mankind entertain in Favour of their Friends, that, in general, the Characters exhibited to the Public of the Dead, come very seldom short of absolute Perfection.——But this never answers any good Purpose; and frequently the very opposite One to what was intended; for the unprejudiced Part of Mankind, never fail to conclude an unnatural Character to be an unjust One; whilst ill-plac'd Panegyric is often turn'd into the severest Sort of Satire. What Mr. Pope says of Writing, may justly enough be applied to Human Nature,

Whoever thinks a faultless Man to see,
Thinks what ne'er was, nor is, nor e'er shall be.

Let it be granted therefore that the best of Men have their Foibles; yet at the same Time it ought to be observ'd, that Imperfections in Men of superior Merit, Parts, and Learning, as they are ever plac'd in a conspicuous Point of Light, are always more taken Notice of, than the same or worse Failings in those of an inferior Class. Nor do the invidious Part of the Species ever spare their Industry, to bring down a brilliant and shining Character, to the Level of their own groveling Meanness, by the most malicious Misrepresentations. On the other Hand, however, it must be confess'd, that all the humane and candid Part of Mankind, view the Imperfections of great Characters, as they do Straws or Dirt in the fine transparent Substance of Amber.

Pretty! in Amber to observe the Forms
Of hairs, or straws, or dirt, or grubs, or worms!
The things we know are neither rich nor rare,
But wonder how the Devil they got there.

POPE.

In like Manner, upon comparing the bright and brilliant, the friendly, the generous and benevolent Parts of a great and good Man's Character, with perhaps some Infirmities of Nature, which, on certain Occasions, give Knaves or Fools an Advantage over him, we wonder and regret, that Perfections which at some Times almost equal him to Angels, shou'd be mixt with Imperfections, which at other Times render him the Sport or Prey of the meanest of Mortals. Yet such, alas! has been the Condition of some of the greatest Geniuses that ever appear'd in the World.

Agreeable to what has been premis'd, I am now to offer somewhat briefly respecting the late Reverend Mr. Sterling. And First, I shall not hesitate one Moment in affirming, that by His Death the Province of Maryland has lost a Great and Good Man, a most valuable Member of Society; and in spite of his Failings (for these no doubt he had) I am not afraid to add, that he was an Honour and Ornament to the sacred Cloth he wore, as well as to the Country he liv'd in; for I will venture to assert, without fear of being contradicted by competent Judges, that his uncommon Abilities and extensive Learning, particularly in all the Branches of polite Literature, stand unrival'd in this Part of the World, and I doubt not but several of the elegant Performances he has favour'd the Public with, will be accounted an incontestable Proof of the Assertion.——Then he was most certainly a Man of a warm, friendly, and feeling Heart, very easily melted down into Tenderness and Compassion for the Sufferings of his Fellow Creatures; and ready on all Occasions to relieve and assist them, as far as ever lay in his Power. It is impossible that a Man of such universal Benevolence shou'd not perform all the domestic Duties of Husband, Parent, and Master, the utmost Care and Tenderness; and accordingly it is well known he had a most able Character, in every one of these Particulars. He was no Bigot in Religion, active and zealous in discharging the Duties of his Function; greatly admir'd as a most elegant and pathetic Preacher, by all who ever hear'd him; and in particular much esteem'd by his Parishioners, which alone no small Test of his Merit. The many joyful Hours spent in his Company (for he was a most delightful Companion) together with a just Sense of his Worth, have drawn these few hasty Lines from a Pen, not fond of appearing in Public on such Occasions: And as he was himself a very considerable Poet, 'tis a Pity methinks he shou'd drop into the Grave, without some little Notice at least from the Muse.——Such as the short Notice and my small Turn to Poetry, will afford his Friends are welcome to on the Occasion; so that if they shou'd meet with nothing better, which, without Affectation I think very easily may, the following Lines may be inscrib'd upon his Grave-Stone by Way

EPITAPH,

IGNATIUS SEMMES.

RAN away from John Ferrall, from Maryland, came to my House, on the Virginia Side, about 2 Miles above Rock Creek Ferry, about the Middle of June last, and worked there about 15 Days, and got acquainted with a Convict Servant Woman of mine, named Hannah Arthur, a fresh looking English Woman, from Dover, about 22 Years of Age, with Freckles on her Face, and a brown Mark on her right Cheek, that one may cover with their Hand; and he carried her away on the 13th Day of August last, and was seen with her near Samuel Broadwater's, on Patuxent, and keeps her Company about his Father's, Martin Forcall's, who lives near John Fowler's, about 2 Miles from Mr. Ridout's new Furnace. I have been twice with him the first Time his Father abused me very much, but he promised to deliver her on my Paying him Five Pounds Virginia Money, and I got the Money last Time, but he would not deliver her. As he is afraid of Officers, and I understand broke out of Annapolis Jail, there is no Advantage at him; but as the Convict Woman will be known at different Times by People in the Neighbourhood (or perhaps with the Relations of Martin Forcall's Wife, who I understand live near Annapolis, and he, the Wife, seems by her Colour to be of the Mulatto breed).

Whoever apprehends the Servant Woman, and has her committed to any Jail, and advertises it in the Maryland Papers, shall have Five Pounds, Reward, paid to the Sheriff, before she is taken out of Jail, by HENRY CULLOM.
